

SCARLET MESSENGERS.

They Must Be Kept Always On the Go or Trouble Will Result.

What has a lumbering freight car in contact with a red speck in a man's blood? A great deal. Just as the car carries grain, meat and other things where they are wanted, so the microscopic scarlet corpuscles in the blood carry oxygen where it is needed to make good the unending waste of tissue. The economic health of a nation depends largely on its railway system. The welfare of the body requires that the millions of red particles shall be kept always running briskly with their freight of oxygen.

What we call a cold clogs the blood and holds it in great quantities where it has no business to be. Hands and feet are chilly, and other parts of the body are congested. It looks as if a cold should be a simple matter to cure, yet how many people do you see who sneeze and hack and complain all winter?

In advanced stages a cold may not yield even to warm treatment, but in the beginning it is easily conquered by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. This is a medicinal tonic, manufactured with the greatest care from the best possible materials. It equalizes the circulation of the blood and is a valuable aid to the digestive functions.

No stock of simple, useful remedies in the household is complete without a bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt. Druggists and grocers keep it in stock. They find that it grows in favor from year to year, and its excellence is such that nothing can supplant it.

"BUCK" IS A MAGNATE.

He Was Here Yesterday and Will Take the Presidency of

THE WHEELING BASE BALL CLUB

In the New Base Ball League—Will

D. White, of Bellaire, Will Be the Manager—Looking After Grounds.

Several Players Are Already on the Wheeling String—The Bowling

Games—Other News of Sport.

Yesterday afternoon Manager Al. C. Buckenberger, of the St. Louis Browns and George L. Moreland, manager of the Steubenville club in the newly organized Inter-state Base Ball League, arrived in the city to look over the local situation and see about grounds for the Wheeling club. Will D. White, the old Bellaire ball player, was also with the pair, and the three spent a very busy afternoon.

Messrs. Buckenberger and White called at the INTELLIGENCER office in the afternoon and outlined the situation. Mr. Buckenberger said that he was not particularly anxious for additional financial backing, having already interested enough capital to make the local club solid in that respect. He would take the presidency of the club and had decided to make Mr. White the manager. Regarding the question of grounds for the Irwin park on the South Side is entirely out of consideration on account of its being in such an out-of-the-way situation. It is regarded necessary that the grounds be located on the island and the investigations of the trio were confined to that portion of the city. Two locations on the island are being considered, the Schumacher property on the north end and the old bridge park on Zane street. It is not certain that the latter place can be secured, and no decision as to the grounds will be reached for some time, in fact nothing definite will be done until the Steubenville meeting of the league, which is to take place February 20.

"In the meantime," said Mr. Buckenberger, "Mr. White and myself will look around for a good team, and secure the men conditionally on the result of the meeting of the league at Steubenville. We already have four of five good players spotted, and it is a sure thing that the Nail City team will be one of the fastest minor league aggregations in the country. The two seasons when I was in the old Tri-State League we had some very fast teams and I anticipate that the team this season will be just as fast or faster than ever before seen by Wheeling people."

"What about Sunday games?" "Well, I don't think we will have games on the Sabbath here. The club, and it will be a good one, will be well supported, I think, without them," was the reply of the St. Louis manager.

Mr. Buckenberger, it has been said by local cranks that the Wheeling team would perhaps be a sort of training school for the reserve players of the Browns. Is there anything in it? "I had not thought of that. Perhaps it would be a good thing. I can assure you that anything I can do for the Wheeling team, I will do with pleasure."

Messrs. Buckenberger and Moreland left in the afternoon, and the former will be here again next week to conclude the business of deciding upon the grounds and park.

The outlook for a season of professional ball in Wheeling is certainly very bright, in fact the only contingency that will bring about failure, is a miscarriage at the Steubenville meeting, which is not at all probable. Buckenberger's connection with the local team will have the effect of strengthening the backs of the other magnates.

Mrs. Raynor, of 792 East One Hundred and Forty-fifth street, New York City, says: "I have suffered terribly from dyspepsia in its worst form. The lightest diet produced death-like sickness. At this time Mr. Raynor brought me some of Munyon's Remedies and encouraged me to try them. The benefit from their use was miraculous. I improved at once and was out of danger in a few days. My improvement was continuous and now I can thank Professor Munyon for a complete and wonderful cure."

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

The numerous friends of Miss Kate Davis were surprised to learn of her quiet marriage in the parlor of the Windsor hotel to Mr. D. M. Wallace, an oil operator, and senior member of the firm of Wallace & Patton, who have large interests at Sistersville and in the McDonald field. The marriage occurred Wednesday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. McClure. The bride was a graduate of the high school here, an estimable lady, who had lived with her brother, Mr. John Davis, at the Hotel Newell, in Sistersville, for some time past. The couple left for the east shortly after their marriage, and will visit his home at Rochester, N. Y., before returning.

The O. U. A. M. will have an interesting time at their semi-Centennial celebration here next Tuesday, and have arranged a good programme, with addresses on the O. U. A. M., its principles and objects; second, its relation to and influence on society; third, its relation and influence on politics; fourth, its influence on home, and lastly, its influence on the members. There will also be some music and recitations during the evening. Several short talks will be made by some of the officers of this society.

Col. S. L. Mooney, president of the Bellaire, Zanesville & Cincinnati railroad, was in the city yesterday. It seems that the accounts of the ascent of this road at Woodfield were recently found short, but that a large part of the money was made up in a very short time—about the same time the Adams Express Company went short. Developments in this line may come later.

The salaries paid to the postmasters in this and towns of this vicinity are as follows: Bellaire, $2,100; Bridgeport, $1,700; Martin's Ferry, $1,600; St. Clairsville, $1,300; Barnesville, $1,700. The Barnesville, Bridgeport and St. Clairsville offices are still held by Republicans, but changes will be made about the first of next month. There are several applicants for each of the places.

Some of the dispatches sent out from here about the flood making people camp on the hills where they suffered from hunger and cold raised the ire of many of the people here, and the fake correspondents were roasted severely by many of the best people here.

Walter Cowen is in the city for a day or two and is meeting with much encouragement in the sale of Colonel Thompson's Personal Recollections of Sixteen Presidents. The book and the canvasser are both worthy.

A number of those formerly connected with the Chautauqua society organized a reading circle at the home of Miss Anna Faris the other evening, and will meet at each other's homes at fixed times.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzard, of West Montecore, Clarion Co., Pa., says: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for.
